

Peter van de Merwe

Super breeder 'Replay'; a monument in Dutch history

One of the most celebrated Dutch pigeon families is that of Peter Van De Merwe. He has been one of the household names in pigeon racing at international level ever since he started keeping pigeons in 1985. He was able to win an impressive 18 NPO victories in the past years thanks to the bloodline of 'Replay'; the foundation of his pigeon family as breeder of several generations of prize winners, including at least 8 NPO winners ... That makes him one of the most iconic breeding pigeons in our sport today.
